It was named for Tortorice's eldest son, Jay.[2] Joe and Rusty grew up in the food business. Their fathers owned neighborhood grocery stores in Beaumont. The original Jason's Deli location is still in operation at its original location at 112 Gateway St. The chain started franchising in 1988, with the first franchised store opened in Tucson, Arizona. As of September 2019, there were 295 locations in 29 states.[3] As of August 2008, Jason's Deli ranked #1 in annual sales in QSR Magazine's Top Ten list of restaurant groups with under 300 locations.[4] The parent company, Deli Management, Inc., owns the majority of the deli restaurants. In 2019, Joe died after a 19-month battle with cancer. He was 70.[5] Menu The company offers a standard deli style menu including traditional sandwiches such as Po'boys and muffalattas. Each deli has a salad bar and a daily soup selection. They also serve other items, such as baked potatoes, pastas and salads. In April 2005, the company completed a five-year plan to eliminate added trans-fats from its menu.[6] In October 2008, the company eliminated high fructose corn syrup from its food.[7][8] Additionally, the company has eliminated MSG from all of its food.[9] Jason's Deli has also introduced gluten-free products. The deli also has ice cream for its customers, free of charge. Awards Jason's Deli won the 2008 Nation's Restaurant News Golden Chain Award, and Restaurants & Institutions' 2007 and 2006 Consumers' Choice in Chains Gold Award in the sandwich segment.
